Term the licences are applied for: 5 years

Outline of proposed works:

For the first two years, low impact field exploration is planned to include historical research, field mapping, aerial surveys, soil sampling, rock chipping with minimal impact on the environment. Should future higher impact exploration activities be planned such as exploration drilling, it will involve a submission of a low impact exploration plan or work plan to Earth Resources Regulation, detailed rehabilitation plans, and monitoring and auditing.

Throughout the exploration planning process, Red Rock Australasia will consult with individual land holders and the broader community and provide information on planned exploration activities and allow opportunities for feedback to be incorporated into the planning process.

5. Objections or Comments

Any person may object or comment to a licence being granted. (Section 24 and 24A, Mineral Resources (Sustainable Development) Act 1990).

A person who objects or comments must:

- put the objection or comments in writing; and
- include the grounds on which it is made.

All objections or comments must be lodged within 21 days after the latest date on which the application was advertised and can be lodged online or posted to:

Manager Licensing Earth Resources Regulation GPO Box 2392 Melbourne Victoria 3001

It is recommended that comments or objections are lodged online at <https://rram.force.com/ObjectionSubmission> to ensure timely consideration.

Enquiries can be made by writing to the Manager Licensing at the above address or by phoning the Earth Resources Information Centre on 1300 366 356.

6. Other Statutory Requirements

Subject to other statutory requirements being satisfied, an exploration licence, if granted, entitles the holder of the licence to explore and search for minerals in the relevant land, but does not entitle the holder to undertake mining.

Further information regarding the statutory requirements that must be complied with prior to work being undertaken on a licence, including landowner and occupier consent requirements, is available at <https://earthresources.vic.gov.au/community-and-land-use>
